

Commonfund Appoints Jay Teevan Managing Director, Consultant Relations, Private Capital

Wilton, CT, November 28, 2018 – Commonfund Capital, the private capital subsidiary of Commonfund, announced today that its investment team has expanded with the appointment of Jay Teevan as Managing Director of Consultant Relations. Jay’s focus will be working with the investment consulting and advisory community on Commonfund Capital’s suite of investment programs in private equity, venture capital, private natural resources, secondaries and co-investments.

Jay brings to Commonfund two decades of consultant relations, institutional sales and direct investment experience, including most recently at Artisan Partners and Strategic Value Partners. She has her Bachelors from Trinity College, Dublin and her MBA from New York University Stern School of Business.

Jay will report to Commonfund Capital Managing Director Ralph Money, who stated that “Jay brings a solid track record of building relationships and providing excellent service to consultants and advisors and is a welcome added resource to our investors and their advisors”.

Jay will be based out of Commonfund’s Connecticut headquarters.

About Commonfund Capital
